Network activity along an independent control transect

All transect points start from the same prescribed state; these measurements do not inherit grid continuation.